

U.S. APPRENTICESHIPS: CHALLENGES

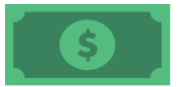

1

No standardized definition of what constitutes the program

2

Program development and implementation is costly, which affects small businesses most

3

Benefits take time as apprenticeship programs take years to complete

4

Companies' lack of understanding of apprenticeships and training resources

5

Few apprenticeships are linked to standardized credentials

6

Apprenticeships completion rate is low

7

Not suitable for all workforce needs
